*Formerly known as 21c Museum Foundation

Only six unique patron tables are being offered. Each table of 10 guests will be hosted by an artist represented in the 21c collection and will come with a unique or commissioned work by the artist.

ELENA DORFMAN
table

Elena Dorfman has lent her photographic work for two solo exhibitions at 21c and is currently working on a new video art project partially filmed in Kentucky. Subsequently, both the Still Lover's series and Fandomania series exhibited at 21c are available as art books. Dorfman lives in New York and Los Angeles and her contribution to the 2008 Pajama Party will be the opportunity for a donor to have a photo portrait taken of the donor with or without their guests. www.elenadorfman.com $7,000.21

table

Michael Combs is a fifth-generation duck decoy carver from Long Island that explores his family's heritage of wood carving techniques, traditionally used for hunting and sport, to make sculpture that challenges nature's role in contemporary culture. Combs' sculpture Alpha Male, 2005, is on permanent display at Proof On Main and exemplifies his departure from traditional craft into the realm of contemporary art. Combs will be donating a photographic work based on a recent sculpture series. www.combssculpture.com $10,000.21

ADAM STENNETT
table

Esquire Magazine called this New York bachelor one of the "New Rogues... shaking up the world of modern art." Adam Stennett, no stranger to 21c, exhibited his video work in the inaugural exhibition at 21c, Hybridity, in 2006. Stennett's paintings, drawings, and videos often depict the underbelly of society or nature. Stennett will be donating a large painting made specifically for the event and from his 2008 series Off the Grid. www.adamstennett.com $10,000.21

table

Gaela Erwin is a Louisville-based artist whose work delves into the complexities of the human condition and spirituality through portrait painting. A solo exhibition of Erwin's self-portraits was exhibited at the Speed Art Museum in 2006. Erwin continues to develop her unique style and has recently begun a series of portraits working in pastel. She will donate a portrait painting of the donor who purchases this table. $10,000.21

GUERRA DE LA PAZ table

Guerra de la Paz is an artist collaborative of the Cuban artists Neraldo de la Paz and Alain Guerra. The artists, working from their studio in Miami's Little Haiti, often use unwanted clothing to make unique sculptures like The Family, 2005, currently on exhibit at 21c Museum. The artists have exhibited throughout the US and are in significant collections and museums such as the Satchi Collection in London. The artists will donate a unique series of framed photographs based on the sculpture at 21c reflecting the artist's interest in traditions, stereotypes, and hierarchy of the family unit. www.guerradelapaz.com $10,000.21

table

Judy Fox has four life-size figurative sculptures permanently installed in the reception gallery at 21c Museum. A pioneer of contemporary figurative sculpture, Fox's figures are cast in terra-cotta and meticulously painted. Her sculptures often fall between the past and present while exploring the real and the imagined. Fox will be donating a study of the full size sculpture from 21c entitled, Ayatollah. www.judyfox.net $12,000.21

"Arillated": The 21c Pip Mobile, 2005-2007
Glass gems, silicone and 1995 Lincoln Towne Car stretch limousine

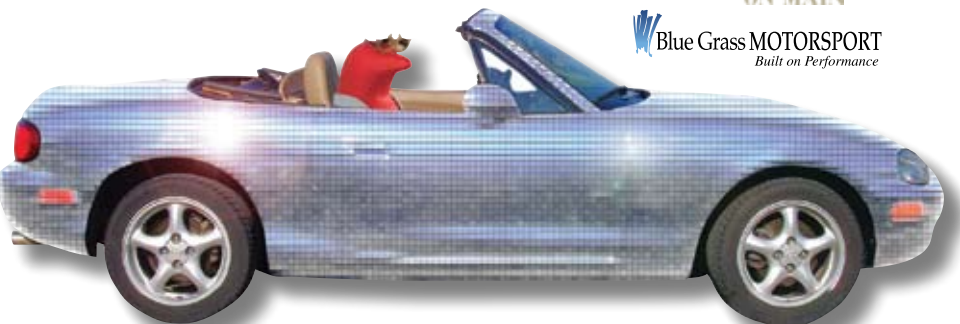

Migrate in style. Win your own personal art-car.

Monica Mahoney, creator of the 21c Pip-mobile,* is designing another art-car to be raffled off at the 2009 Pajama Party. The mirror-encrusted Mazda Miata will be unveiled at this year's event. Chances to win are $50.21 and tax-deductible. Contributors will not have to be present to win this one-of-a-kind sports car.

*Pip n. a small seed - v. to break out of the shell - slang: wonderful. "Arillated" adj. covered with glass gems. Thus, "Hilda, the shy introvert among us 'pipped', (going wild) when we sent for her in the 21c Pip-mobile, 'arillated' with beads resembling the 'pip' of a pomegranate. Said Hilda, "Totally, pip!"
